Dear Hiring Manager:

I am interested in the Marketing Manager position. Please find my resume attached for your review and consideration. After earning my B.A. degree in Communications from the University of South Florida; I had the opportunity to stumble upon my true passion. I began to volunteer at American Red Cross and fell in love with the experience of making a difference in my community. Following this, I became a “perpetual” volunteer within several organizations and held my hand up high whenever help was needed. This love developed into a realization that my talents lie in the areas of leadership, web development, marketing and coding. And, I’m opened to relocating as well. Also certified as a social media consultant through Hootsuite University <http://learn.hootsuite.com/u/msmedialist>. In closing, I think it’s important to share that because of my experience in marketing and fundraising support, I understand the importance of always developing capital and human resources. I feel confident that I could help to maintain and increase participation within your organization.

Thank you again, I can be reached at (813) 454-1355.

Sincerely,

Michelle Adelufosi
